RE: Call for Nominations — Veterans Memorial Wall

The Jurupa Area Recreation and Park District (JARPD) Memorial Wall Committee is pleased to announce that it is now accepting nominations for inclusion on the Veterans Memorial Wall located at Veterans Memorial Park.

The District established the Veterans Memorial Wall to honor individuals who have faithfully served the United States Armed Forces and meet the following criteria:

- Received an Honorable Discharge, verified by a DD214 Form (this requirement may be waived for World War II veterans);
- Maintained residency within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Jurupa Area Recreation and Park District;
- Are deceased; and
- Have made a significant contribution to serving the community.

The Veterans Memorial Wall stands at Veterans Memorial Park, 4393 Riverview Drive, Jurupa Valley, CA 92509, on the Pacific Street side of the park. The annual program and unveiling of newly inscribed names will take place on Armed Forces Day, Saturday, May 16, 2026, at 10:00 a.m.

Nomination forms are available at the JARPD District Office, located at 8621 Jurupa Road, Jurupa Valley, CA 92509. Forms may also be downloaded from the District's website at www.jarpd.org. The deadline to submit nominations is April 3, 2026.

Donations to support this program are welcome. All contributions are used exclusively for inscribing names on the wall, ongoing maintenance, and program-related expenses.

For questions or additional information, please contact the Jurupa Area Recreation and Park District at (951) 361-2090.
